

Full road closure to Orphanage Road from Monday 2 February – Friday 17 April 2015.

Major work to replace the railway bridge at Orphanage Road in Watford will start in February as essential improvements to provide a better, more reliable railway for passengers on the West Coast main line continues.

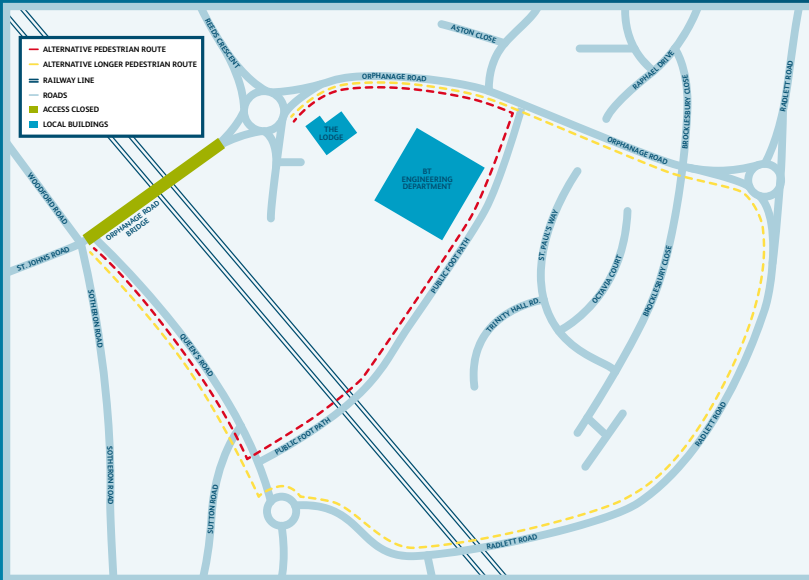

In addition, there are major restrictions to train services to and from London Euston from 14 – 16 and 21 – 23 February.

Over Easter there will be no West Coast main line service between London Euston and Hemel Hempstead from 3 – 7 April.

Orphanage Road Closure

As part of the preparation work to allow for the new bridge to be installed over the Easter bank holiday weekend, Orphanage Road will be closed to road traffic for 12 weeks from Monday 2 February to Friday 17 April. Pedestrian access will be limited to Monday 2 February until Monday 23 February from 5:30pm until 7am.

After Monday 23 February, pedestrian access will be closed and you will have to use one of the alternative walking routes marked above until the reopening of Orphanage Road on Friday 17 April. We apologise for any inconvenience these essential works may cause.
