Psalm 23

Reading from the Quran

Read by Qari Muhammad Asim MBE

Senior Imam, Makkah Masjid (Mosque)

Remember when you were an oppressed few in the land, afraid of being wiped out; Allah gave you protection and strengthened you with His help and provided you with wholesome things so you might be thankful.

Believers, don't betray God Almighty and the Messenger knowingly, nor be disloyal to your trusts; and know that your wealth and children are a test, and that Allah has a great reward (in store for you).

Believers, if you are mindful of Allah He will give you the standard to judge between right and wrong), and He will cover up your wrongdoings and forgive you. Allah is Gracious in His favour.

The Prayers

Lead by the Very Rev Canon Fr Matthew Habron
Dean of Leeds Roman Catholic Cathedral

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name.
Thy Kingdom come;
thy will be done
on earth, as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread
And forgive us our trespasses
as we forgive those who trespass
against us.
And lead us not into temptation
but deliver us from evil
for thine is the Kingdom,
the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever.

HYMN: Dear Lord and Father of Mankind

Dear Lord and Father of mankind,
forgive our foolish ways;
re clothe us in our rightful mind,
in purer lives thy service find,
in deeper reverence, praise.

In simple trust like theirs who heard
beside the Syrian sea
the gracious calling of the Lord,
let us, like them, without a word
rise up and follow thee.

Drop thy still dews of quietness,
till all our strivings cease;
take from our souls the strain and stress,
and let our ordered lives confess
the beauty of thy peace.

Breathe through the heats of our desire
thy coolness and thy balm;
let sense be dumb, let flesh retire;
speak through the earthquake, wind, and fire,
O still, small voice of calm!

Words: John Greenleaf Whittier (1807-92)

hymn tune REPTON, composed by C. Hubert
H. Parry (1848-1918)

Almighty God grant to the living, grace;
to the departed, rest;
to the Church, the King, the Commonwealth and all people
unity, peace and concord;
and to us and all God's servants, life everlasting;
and the blessing of God Almighty,

Amen.

The National Anthem

God save our gracious King,
Long live our noble King,
God save the King.

Send him victorious,
Happy and Glorious,
Long to reign over us;
God save the King!

Thy choicest gifts in store
On him be pleased to pour,
Long may he reign.

May he defend our laws,
And ever give us cause,
To sing with heart and voice,
God save the King.
